FROM “IN CASE ANYTHING HAPPENS”

My Final Wishes

Write in pen, date it, sign it, and put it at the front of your folder. Nothing on it needs a witness.

Name

1 Call these people first

Name · relationship · phone. Note who is executor and who is healthcare proxy.

2 Where my documents are

Will · advance directive · insurance · deed/titles · passwords sheet. Where each is, who has copies.

3 My medical wishes, in my own words

What you would and would not want. Where you would want to be. Who decides.

4 Body and funeral wishes

Burial or cremation · service or not, where · ashes · anything pre-paid · a spending ceiling.

This page guides your family; it does not replace a will, an advance directive, or a pre-need contract. Not legal, financial, or medical advice. Example letter and explanations: incaseanythinghappens.com/blog/final-wishes-planner

5 The home, pets, and practical things

Pets · spare key · auto-pay bills · car · anything that must be handled in the first week.

6 Specific items to specific people

Item → person. Note whether your will references this list.

7 Digital accounts

Email · social media · photos: memorialize, delete, or hand over. Legacy contact set? Where the passwords are.

8 A message

Optional. Two lines is enough.
